Start investing in yourself today, with help from the TSRI 457(b) Plan and Fidelity.
Congratulations, you are eligible to enroll in the 457(b) plan!

Dear Scripps Research Institute employee:

Benefit from:

Convenience. Your contributions are automatically deducted regularly from your paycheck.

Tax savings now. Your pretax contributions are deducted from your pay before income taxes are taken out. This means that you may actually lower the amount of current income taxes withheld each period. It could mean more money in your take-home pay versus saving money in a taxable account.

Tax-deferred savings opportunities. You pay no taxes on any earnings until you withdraw them from your account, enabling you to keep more of your money working for you now.

Catch-up Contribution. You may be able to make additional "catch-up" contributions during one or more of the last three calendar years prior to normal retirement age. Please see the "Frequently asked questions about your Plan" section of this guide for additional details.

Investment options. You have the flexibility to select from investment options that range from more conservative to more aggressive, making it easy for you to develop a well-diversified investment portfolio.

To learn more about what your plan offers, see "Frequently asked questions about your plan" later in this guide.

Sincerely,

TSRI

Frequently asked questions about your plan.

Here are answers to questions you may have about the key features, benefits, and rules of your plan.

When can I enroll in the Plan?
Congratulations, you're eligible to enroll anytime! There is no waiting period!

How do I enroll in the Plan?
Log on to Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.fidelity.com/atwork or call the Fidelity Retirement Representatives at 1-800-343-0860 to enroll in the Plan.

For illustrative purposes only.

When is my enrollment effective?
Your enrollment becomes effective once you elect a deferral amount, which initiates deduction of your contributions from your pay. These salary deductions will generally begin the first pay period of the following month after the election is made.

How much can I contribute?
Through automatic payroll deduction, you may contribute up to 100% of your eligible pay on a pretax basis, up to the annual IRS dollar limits. The Internal Revenue Code provides that the combined annual limit for total plan contributions is 100% of your W2 compensation or $49,000, whichever is less.

What are the IRS contribution limits?
The IRS contribution limit is $16,500 for 2009.

What happens if I do not select an investment mix?
Contributions will default to the Plan's default fund, a Fidelity Freedom Fund which has a target retirement date closest to the year you might retire, based on your date of birth and assuming a retirement age of 65. A default fund is the fund the Plan has told Fidelity to direct investments to if a participant has not actively selected a fund or funds. Please see the investment options section for more information.

What are my investment options?
To help you meet your investment goals, the Plan offers you a range of options. You can select a mix of investment options that best suits your goals, time horizon, and risk tolerance. The investment options available through the Plan include conservative, moderately conservative, and aggressive funds. A complete description of the Plan's investment options and their performance, as well as planning tools to help you choose an appropriate mix, are available online at Fidelity NetBenefits®.

The Plan also offers the Fidelity Freedom Funds® that offer a blend of stocks, bonds and short-term investments within a single fund. Each Freedom Fund's asset allocation is based on the number of years until the fund's target retirement date. The Freedom Funds are designed for investors who want a simple approach to investing for retirement. Lifecycle funds are designed for investors expecting to retire around the year indicated in each fund's name. It is important to keep in mind that the lifecycle funds are designed to become more conservative as they near their target retirement date. However, like all the plan's investment options, they involve risk. Unless a plan investment option specifically states otherwise, principal is not guaranteed at any time and it is possible to lose money at any time, including near and after your retirement.

What "catch-up" contribution can I make?
A 457(b) plan participant may be eligible to contribute up to twice the limit set by the IRS. You may be eligible for the catch-up contribution in the three calendar years ending prior to the year in which the participant attains normal retirement age. The normal retirement age is determined by the participant by completing the attached form in this guide and returning it to TSRI. Eligibility is dependent upon your underutilized amount and will be calculated by the plan administrator.

When am I vested?
You are always 100% vested in your own contributions to the TSRI 457(b) Plan and any earnings on them.

Can I take a loan from my account?
Loans are not available in this plan.

Can I make withdrawals from my account?
Withdrawals from the Plan are generally permitted when you have a severance from employment, reach age 70 1/2, have an unforeseeable emergency or in the case of plan termination. Keep in mind that withdrawals are subject to income taxes.

How do I access my account?
You can access your account online through Fidelity NetBenefits® at www.fidelity.com/atwork or call the Fidelity Retirement Representatives at 1-800-343-0860 to speak with a representative or use the automated voice response system, virtually 24 hours, 7 days a week.

How do I obtain additional investment option and account information?
Your Employer has appointed Fidelity to provide additional information on the investment options available through the Plan. Also, a statement of your account may be requested by phone at 1-800-343-0860 or reviewed online at Fidelity NetBenefits®.

This spectrum, with the exception of the Domestic Equity category, is based on Fidelity’s analysis of the characteristics of the general investment categories of the investment options and not on the actual security holdings, which can change frequently. Investment options in the Domestic Equity category are based on the options’ Morningstar categories as of 08/31/2009. Morningstar categories are based on a fund’s style as measured by its underlying portfolio holdings over the past three years and may change at any time. These style calculations do not represent the investment options’ objectives and do not predict the investment options’ future styles. Investment options are listed in alphabetical order within each investment category. Risk associated with the investment options can vary significantly within each particular investment category, and the relative risk of categories may change under certain economic conditions. For a more complete discussion of risk associated with the mutual fund options, please read the prospectuses before making your investment decision. The spectrum does not represent actual or implied performance.
LifeCycle Funds

The lifecycle investment options are represented on a separate spectrum because each investment option (except the income fund, if applicable) will gradually adjust its asset allocation to be more conservative as the investment option approaches and moves beyond its target retirement dates. Generally, those investment options with later target retirement dates have greater equity exposure and more risk than those with earlier target retirement dates.

The chart below illustrates the plan-assigned fund the TSRI 457(b) Plan believes will best fit your diversification needs should you not select an investment option.

Fund code: 99474

What it is: A bond mutual fund.

Goal: Seeks to provide maximum total return, consistent with preservation of capital and prudent investment management.

What it invests in: All types of bonds, including U.S. government, corporate, mortgage and foreign. While the fund maintains an average portfolio duration of three to six years (approximately equal to an average maturity of five to 12 years), investments may also include short- and long-maturity bonds. Duration estimates how much a bond’s price fluctuates with changes in comparable interest rates. Other factors can also influence a bond fund’s performance and share price. In general, the bond market is volatile; bond prices rise when interest rates fall, and vice versa. This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. Share price, yield, and return will vary.

Managed by Pacific Investment Management Company, which provided the description for this fund.

Non-investment grade securities are securities ranked BB, Ba, or below by a nationally recognized statistical rating organization. The fund may invest in lower-quality securities that generally offer higher yields, but also carry more risk of default or price changes due to potential changes in the credit quality of the issuer. In addition, bond funds entail interest rate risk (as interest rates rise bond prices usually fall and vice versa). This effect is usually more pronounced for longer-term securities. The fund may purchase the securities of issuers that are in default. Yield will vary.

The value of inflation-protected debt securities tends to change less due to changes in inflation than other types of bonds but may decrease with decreases in inflation or, as with other debt securities, with increases in interest rates. SPECIALTY

Fidelity Real Estate Investment Portfolio

Fund code: 00303

What they are: The Fidelity Freedom Funds are investment options that allow the investor to select the fund that best matches his or her expected retirement year. The Fidelity Freedom Funds invest in a diversified portfolio of other Fidelity mutual funds to provide moderate asset allocation. They are designed for investors who want a simple yet diversified approach to investing for their retirement. The allocation strategy for the underlying equity, fixed-income, and short-term mutual funds is based on the number of years until the Freedom funds reach their target retirement dates. Each Freedom fund with a target retirement date will gradually adopt a more conservative asset allocation as it approaches its target retirement date. Therefore, each fund’s target asset allocation percentages will change over time to become more conservative, by gradually reducing allocations to equity funds and increasing allocations to fixed-income and short-term funds. The Fidelity Freedom Income Fund®, designed for those already in retirement, emphasizes fixed-income and short-term mutual funds and seeks to maintain a stable asset allocation from year to year.

Goal: The Fidelity Freedom Funds with target retirement dates seek to provide high total returns until the target retirement date. Thereafter, each fund’s goal will be to seek high current income and, as a secondary objective, capital appreciation. The Freedom Income Fund seeks high current income and, secondarily, capital appreciation.

What they invest in: Each Freedom fund invests in a diversified portfolio of Fidelity equity, fixed-income, and short-term mutual funds. Fidelity Freedom 2050 Fund®, with the longest time horizon, invests primarily in equity mutual funds to take advantage of potentially greater growth opportunities. The asset mix of each Freedom fund with a target retirement date (Fidelity Freedom Income Fund®, Fidelity Freedom 2000 Fund®, Fidelity Freedom 2005 Fund®, Fidelity Freedom 2010 Fund®, Fidelity Freedom 2015 Fund®, Fidelity Freedom 2020 Fund®, Fidelity Freedom 2025 Fund®, Fidelity Freedom 2030 Fund®, Fidelity Freedom 2035 Fund®, Fidelity Freedom 2040 Fund®, Fidelity Freedom 2045 Fund®, Fidelity Freedom 2050 Fund®) will gradually become more conservative over time so investors can stay with the same fund before and during retirement. After reaching the target retirement date, these Freedom funds continue to be managed more conservatively for 10 to 15 more years until their asset mix is approximately the same as Freedom Income Fund. Ultimately, after notifying the funds’ investors, the funds will merge into the Freedom Income Fund. The Freedom Income Fund, designed for those already retired, is invested more conservatively, with a larger percentage in fixed-income and short-term funds and has a smaller percentage of equity mutual funds. The funds’ manager must invest in the group of underlying funds named in the prospectus, and will aim for the projected target asset allocation percentages announced to investors in the funds’ annual and semiannual reports. Freedom funds with target retirement dates may invest in domestic and foreign equity funds, high yield and investment grade fixed-income funds, and short-term funds. The Freedom Income Fund invests in domestic equity funds, investment grade fixed-income funds, high yield bond funds and short-term funds. These funds are subject to the volatility of the financial markets in the U.S. and abroad and may be subject to the additional risk associated with investing in high yield, small cap, and foreign securities. Share price and return of each Freedom fund will vary.

Who might want to invest:
- Someone who wants a simple approach for choosing retirement investment options.
- Someone who wants a long-term investment strategy that changes over time as his or her target retirement date approaches.
