IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 19, 1989

MEDIA ADVISORY

WHEN: 8:30 a.m. - 12 noon, Saturday, April 22, 1989

WHERE: Amphitheater, Scripps Clinic & Research Foundation, 10666 N. Torrey Pines Rd., La Jolla. (Tour to follow lecture)

WHAT: First lecture in the three-Saturday Young Scientists Lecture Series, sponsored by the charter Society of Scripps Clinic & Research Foundation.

"Modern Neurosurgery" with Dr. Brian Copeland, division of neurosurgery; and "Effects of High Altitude on the Brain" with Dr. Shirley Otis, head, division of neurology and medical director of the Vascular Laboratory.

Followed by a tour of Scripps Clinic's new surgical units and vascular laboratory.

WHO: 200 San Diego County high school students will attend this first annual lecture series.

REMARKS: The news media is invited to attend the lectures and join the students on the tour. Please let us know if you plan to come.

R.S.V.P. Sue Pondrom or Stacie Mayle, 554-8133